Introduction to Sustainable Development SD101

asset-v1_KTH+SD101+2022+type@asset+block@Template_photo_Values_thinking.png image not found or type unknown

Introduction to Sustainable Development

In this course package you will get a basic introduction to the concept of sustainable development. Among other things, the three pillars of sustainability (economic, social and ecological sustainability), planetary boundaries and resource management are discussed. You will also learn about key competences for sustainability such as systems thinking and values thinking, and get an overview of the basic mechanisms of Earth's climate and climate change.

Teacher: Jon-Erik Dahlin

Enroll

Revision #8
Created 11 September 2024 10:10:39 by Admin
Updated 31 March 2025 12:18:26 by Admin